SILENCED VOICES PODCAST LAUNCHES ON VETERANS DAY 2023

ORLANDO, FL – In a groundbreaking effort to shed light on a hidden epidemic affecting countless individuals within the armed forces, "Silenced Voices - Stories of MST" is proud to announce its official launch on Veterans Day 2023. This poignant and compelling podcast aims to bring awareness to the pervasive issue of Military Sexual Trauma (MST) while providing a platform for survivors to share their stories and advocate for change within the military community.

About the Host: Rachelle Smith, an Air Force veteran and MST survivor, leads this groundbreaking podcast. With a background in Communications and a distinguished career as a US Air Force Public Affairs Officer, Rachelle's commitment to bringing MST into the spotlight is unwavering. Her experiences in national news matters and her journey from military service to advocacy make her a passionate and dedicated host.

Fundraising Efforts and Impact "Silenced Voices" is not just a platform for storytelling; it's also a mission to make a difference. The podcast aims to raise funds to support veterans in receiving specialized private care to address the physical and emotional wounds caused by MST. These funds will provide survivors with the resources they need to heal and thrive beyond their traumatic experiences.

Join us on Veterans Day 2023 as we launch "Silenced Voices - Stories of MST." Together, we can create a space for understanding, empathy, and change within the armed forces and society at large.
